DETAILED ACTION

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1,2,4,8,9,11,13 and 17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Rohrbacher et al (USPN 4959189) as set forth in the Office action mailed 10/14/04.

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 3,5,6, and 7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Rohrbacher et al (USPN 5725712) as set forth in the Office action mailed 10/14/04.

5. Claims 10,12 and 14-16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Rohrbacher et al (USPN 5725712) as set forth in the Office action mailed 10/14/04.

6. Claim 18 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Rohrbacher et al (USPN 5725712) as set forth in the Office action mailed 10/14/04.

7. Applicant's arguments filed 12/10/05 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicant argues that a layer comprised of metallic flakes and/or pigments does not constitute a decorative layer of metal. This argument is misplaced because the instant claims are open-ended and the instant specification does not limit the term "decorative layer of metal" to a layer of only metal. Since there is no limitation associated with the term "decorative layer of metal," the layer of Rohrbacher et al that comprises metallic flakes and/or pigments constitutes the claimed decorative layer of metal. Applicant also argues that Rohrbacher et al do not teach a thermoplastic elastomer. This argument is misplaced because Rohrbacher et al clearly teaches the use of thermoplastic elastomers throughout the specification, e.g., col 20, lns 50-55.

8. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
